

" Then Laurie did her famous fish face: She pushed her ears out, crossed her eyes, and pukered her lips. Amy was tryin g so hard not to laught that tear started running down her cheeks."(pg2)

Always
Smiling/
Funny

Takes things
Seriously

Laurie
Saunders

Hard Worker/
Straight "A"
Student

"ButEric's right, She said. How could the Germans sit back while the Nazis slaughtered people all around them and say they didn't know about it? How could they do that? How could they even think that? (pg 13)

" when he taught, he spoke in a dull monotone that could easily put the brightest students to sleep, and even though the course he taught was not difficult, Laurie recalled how hard it had been to pay enought attention to get an A."(Pg3)

Caring

Dedicated

"All semester he had been trying to get through this bou. He couldn;t stand seeing him picked on by the other students and it dismayed him that Robert didn't at least try to participate in class." (pg15)

"It made him wonder. Why hadn't he been able to give the students adequate answers to their questions?"(pg 25)

Ben
Ross

"She knew Ben was the kind of person who got involved with things. Not just involved, but utterly asborbed in them to the point where he tended to forget the rest of the world existed." (pg27)

Obbsesive